

▲ Sleep in comfort all year round thanks to this Cotton House wool underblanket. Fully reversible, it is constructed using a silver knit-tufted woolen pile on one side and a cotton percale casing on the reverse and filled with natural wool to keep you warm in winter and cool in summer. Available in a range of sizes, it's priced from $209.95 to $379.95 at Bed Bath N' Table.

▲ A traditional toile pattern always looks timeless and feminine and we love this toile patterned blue quilt from Fleur Furniture. With a striped reverse, the queen/king retails for $350, with the off-white oak-trimmed queen bed $2500. www.fleurfurniture.com.au

▲ Cover bare floors with rugs in subtle shades and luxurious textures, such as this Amalfi Tibet lamb fur skin, $269.95.

Give your bedroom a touch of luxury with this plush Velvet quilt from EziBuy. With a cotton velvet quilted outer and a plain dyed cotton reverse, it can be paired with their Velvet pillow covers and cushions to complete the look and comes in three dreamy colours – white, pink (pictured) and grey (pictured) – priced from $149.99 to $169.99.

▼ Royal Doulton has released its bed linen collection for autumn and winter, which is designed to create a fresh, modern feel in the bedroom. Introducing a layered look for both colour and pattern, it mixes neutral colour palettes together with pops of colour, dreamy watercolours and cool geometrics. Available nationally from Myer department stores and bed linen specialists through Legend Australia, the quilt cover sets are priced from $199.95 for the queen and $219.95 for the king; standard pillowcase from $59.95 for a pair; European pillowcase from $39.95 for a pair; square cushion from $49.95; long cushion from $49.95; and throw from $129.95 – shown here is the Melia Plum quilt cover set.

