Coming up roses

Here's a simple and stunning way to jazz up an old dresser or cupboard. These Hephburn Hardware Yellow Rose knobs are a lovely way to make a favourite piece pop. They have a diameter of 5.5cm and are $8 (hardware included) each. Check out the entire range at hepburnhardware.com.

Elephant in the room

Have a little fun with your decor and add one of these playful creatures to a bookshelf. The Elephant Bubble bookend, which weighs about 1kg, also works wonders for CDs and even propping open doors. It measures H15cm x L30cm x W16cm and is $89.90. Choose your favourite design at top3.com.au.

This week's must-haves for your decor wish list

As time goes by

Sweet and functional, these quirky clocks certainly tick all the right boxes for us. The Vintage alarm clocks, in red (available in store only) or yellow, measure H15.8cm with a diameter of 11.7cm. They're $19.95 each at Bed Bath N' Table. See bedbathntable.com.au for store details.

Bright on

A dash of colour is a great way to lift the spirits. We're keen on this vibrant artwork from Amalfi. The Enigma framed print, with splashes of yellow, pink and orange, will inject some warmth into your home. Measuring H87.5cm x W70cm, it's $399.95. Contact Amalfi through amalfihomewares.com.au to find a stockist.

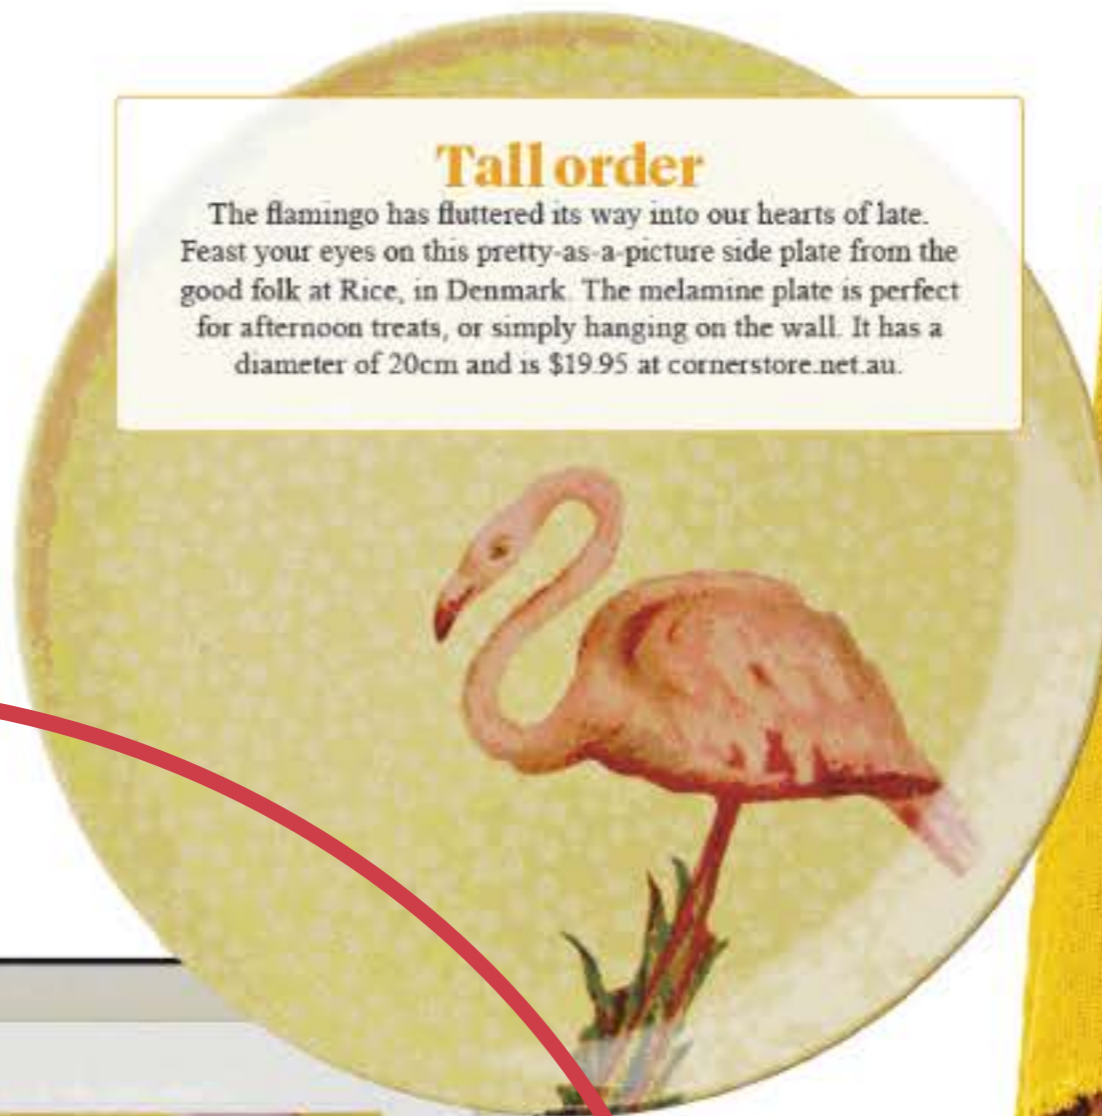

Sunshine toast

Start your day on a sunny note with this cheerful toaster on your benchtop. The Yellow Accents four-slice toaster comes with browning control, frozen-bread setting, reheat and cancel buttons and a removable crumb tray. Priced at $129.95, it's also available in a multitude of colours. See morphy-richards.com.au for stockist details.

Tall order

The flamingo has fluttered its way into our hearts of late. Feast your eyes on this pretty-as-a-picture side plate from the good folk at Rice, in Denmark. The melamine plate is perfect for afternoon treats, or simply hanging on the wall. It has a diameter of 20cm and is $19.95 at cornerstore.net.au.

Mustard source

Consider winter all rugged up with this luxurious Antigua waffle throw draped around you. The soft throw has been designed in New Zealand and woven at a family-owned mill, in Littleton, from 100 per cent linen. Expect to pay about $228. It measures L140cm x W80cm at coastnzzealand.com.

Jungle fever

Perfect for the playroom or living room, this super-cute floor cushion is sure to brighten your abode. The soft cotton On A Safari cushion, adorned with bold prints, is ideal for lazing on the floor, or engaging in imaginative play. It has a diameter of 70cm and is priced at $129 (cover only) or $149 (cover and insert). See littlewolff.com.au.

GRAIN AND SHINE

We love finding a sustainable option when it comes to furniture and fittings, and this floating bathroom vanity is a perfect example. The Styx vanity (from $1085) is part of a range of custom-made pieces from Melbourne furniture makers Ingrain Designs. The collection includes dining tables, coffee tables, television units and storage units, all handmade from recycled, reclaimed or sustainably sourced timbers. The bespoke nature allows customers to choose a timber type and colour tone to meet their aesthetic. Check out the showroom at 279 Wellington St, Collingwood. ingraindesigns.com.au

HUNT & GATHER

Mark your calendars: the countdown is on until the next Finders Keepers market comes to town. The market has put together a stellar line-up of more than 250 stallholders, with treasures including ceramics, textiles, stationery, artworks and other homewares. The market will be held across three days, starting with an evening market from 6pm on Friday, July 22, at the Royal Exhibition Building, in Carlton. thefinderskeepers.com

DREAM STATE

The votes are in and sleep is the major priority for 81 per cent of Australians when renovating or decorating a main bedroom. The survey, conducted by home-renovation and design platform Houzz, also found contemporary to be the most popular style, with neutral palettes dominating colour choices. About 75 per cent strive for a stylish and beautiful bedroom, while 54 per cent want a room that feels like a sanctuary. Oh, and decorative pillows get the big thumbs up. houzz.com.au
