Tea break

A unique cup of tea is a delightful way to greet the morning. Treat yourself to one of these loose-leaf teas and tisanes, handmade in the Yarra Ranges. Prices start at $3 for a sample bag. Pictured on the right is the test tube, for $10, which makes more than 20 cups of tea. See thewildnothing.com.au.

Branching out

There's no need to leave your hat on when you have such a gorgeous hat and coat stand at your front door. We're rather fond of this Paula stand, crafted from wood in a natural finish. It measures H162.5cm x W50cm and is $349 at schots.com.au.

Hot seat

Add some warmth to your outdoor dining area with this bright and snazzy metal chair. The Salvador outdoor chair in coral, with a yellow cushion, is a cheerful way to take it outside. It's $239.95. Contact Amalfi, through amalfihomewares.com.au, to find a stockist.

Warm welcome

Turn up the heat with a snuggly knitted throw draped over your sofa. We've got a soft spot for the cotton-and-acrylic knitted Monash throw with its classic ribbed border. The rug, available in a range of pretty hues (including coral, pictured), measures L170cm x W130cm and is priced at $89.95. See bambury.com.au for stockist details.
