

HOME FRONT

PENNY HARRISON

Fond of fronds

We're loving a touch of the tropics in the homewares world, especially as the weather warms up. Try this sweet copper wall sticker from French design studio Mimi'lou. The Aloha wall sticker is $64.95. For stockists, contact Can't Find It through its website. cantfindit.com.au

Ears an idea

Hop to it and add this sweet bunny chair to your child's playroom. The Rabbit play chair ($369) is made from baltic plywood and eco MDF for a strong and sturdy design, with rounded edges for extra safety. It has a seat height of 34cm. zanui.com.au

Baby love

The clean lines and curves of Scandinavian design give this nursery range a retro sophistication. The Paloma collection includes a cot with toddler rail guard ($649) and dresser with removable change-table top ($749). The set is $1099 and available to pre-order for delivery in December. Say cheese

Give your cheese platter extra edge with this stunning two-piece cheese and pate knife set. The copper-coloured stainless-steel set ($34.99) is ideal for stylish entertaining. For stockists, contact Amalfi through its website. amalfihomewares.com.au

Art & soul

Melbourne design studio Ink & Spindle has added artworks to its impressive repertoire of handmade homewares. The screen-printed artworks are one-of-a-kind hand-printed pieces made from a variety of botanical-inspired prints. Pictured is Saffron Grass with Snow (H110cm x W145cm) for $1200.
