

RETRO REVIVAL

This winter the trends are all about luxe textures and warm hues with materials like velvet, corduroy, suede and aged leathers set to be huge. Key colours take inspiration from the '70s. Think of mustard yellow, teal and pale greens, peacock blue and browns.

Frosted glass

When it comes to finding the perfect home accessories to fit with a 1970s theme you can't go past frosted glass. Look for pieces that are patterned or tinted in pale blue or green. The Amalfi Cayne vase in teal retails for $49.95. For local stockists visit amalfihomewares.com.au

Chasing shadows

Don't make the mistake of treating a lamp as though its sole purpose is to create light. They can also play a pivotal role in tying together all elements of a room. The Amalfi Clifton desk lamp will look at home in a retro inspired living room, bedroom or study. It retails for $139.95
