

Kitchen ACCESSORIES

What's cookin', good lookin'? Inject some serious style into the kitchen space with these design-savvy essentials.

WORDS: Natasha Pavez

Nice, Different, Unusual

Vino lovers, rejoice – now your décor can pay homage to your tippie of choice. The Ustencil Wine Bottle Holder from So Unusual is made from recycled wine bottles, carefully smoothed into the signature perfect finish you see, and holds anything from kitchen utensils to a kitchen garden. $49, sounusual.com.au

Seeing Red

Lorraine Lea's microfibre kitchen towel set is a brightly bold addition to your kitchen – that red is a serious pop of colour which your décor will love. Each pack contains three towels with their own cute design, perfect for injecting personality into pared-back kitchens. lorrainelea.com

BOTTLED UP

Modernism is on the menu – the edgy rubber Bottle Grinders are the coolest take on salt and pepper grinders we've seen of late, without veering into kitsch. Easy to use, beautifully designed and featuring a powerful ceramic grinder, you won't go back to plastic grinders again. $110, italane.com.au

Losing Our Marbles

A darker take on the marble and wood trend, the Amalfi tableware range is a modern gourmand's dream. A variety of products, from cheese boards to condiment sets, make coordinating your dining dreams incredibly easy – and they'll last for years in both style and design. amalfihomewares.com.au

JUGGLING ACT

Crisp, clean and minimalist, the Nordic Decors Nordic Jug and lidded bowl adds some classic charm to any table setting, holding a variety of goodies to complement your favourite feeds. Bonus – they're oven, microwave and dishwasher safe. From $54, nordicdecors.com.au

A GOOD EGG

Eggs and soldiers are getting a revival, so get ready to dine in retro style. Melody Maison's wooden eggs and soldiers board evokes a farmhouse feel with this solid wooden board, featuring a dedicated place to seat the hero of your dish. melodymaison.co.uk
